AAPI LAPP Festival August 28-31, 2013

The Asian Pacific Islander American (APIA) Literary Arts and Performance Festival takes place this August 28 through 31st, with some events spilling over to September 1st, in Washington, D.C.

Events include workshops, live poetry readings by celebrated APIA (or is it AAPI) poets, writers, musicians, comedians, and dramatists.

This event is partly the brainchild of Kollaboration DC, Pass it Around, Sulu DC, Cherry Blossom Giving Circle, and other philanthropists. However LAPP also features artists and volunteers who simply want to participate in the Summit.

Volunteers and professionals will perform at numerous venues including Busboys and Poets (Wed), BloomBars (Thur), Mead Theatre Lab (Fri), The Kennedy Center's Millennium Stage (Fri), and Atlas Theater (Sat).

It is not too late to register, as the $50.00 registration fee, valid for all 4-days, can be accepted on a daily basis during open registration.

For passionate dreamers and provisioners of spoken word and motion, performing before a live national audience helps establish, define, unite, and inspire appreciation for the expanding AAPI community and cultural diaspora.

If you cannot attend, read more about LAPP Fest's travels to six cities, or view tonight's Millennium Stage Performance (which will be made a permanent part of the Archives) here:
